

Last Man Standing

One person is chosen to hold the dice.

The cards are spread around the zone area.

Each child chooses a number between 1-6. The dice holder rolls the dice and calls out the number.

All the children standing at that number are out.

The game carries on until 1 child is left that person is the winner and is the dice holder for the next game.

