

What's in the bag?

Instructions:

An adult is to hide an object inside a bag for the child to guess.

This game is to allow the child to use questioning and their thinking skills to guess what could be in the bag.

The child can then ask questions to try and find out what is hiding inside the bag.

This can then be repeated with various objects making it more challenging each time.