Dear Parents and Carers

I am sure you will have heard on the news that the Government is carrying out a review on the teaching of Sex and relationships in schools.

If you would like to participate and share your views, then please use the information below.

You will be asked to say if you are a parent or professional, and the questions you will be asked include:

Thinking about relationships education in primary schools, what do you believe are the three most important subject areas that should be taught for different age groups/key stages and why. Please include any considerations or evidence which informed your choices.

Relationships in primary schools – what are the 3 most important areas

PHSE is Personal, Social and Health Education.

Thinking about PSHE in primary schools, what do you believe are the three most important subject areas that should be taught and why? Please include your reasons for choosing each subject area or evidence to support your suggestions.

What do you believe are the three most important subject areas that should be taught and why
