5th November 2025

Dear Parent/Carer

Next week is Antibullying week. We are starting the week with an odd socks day on Monday 10th November which is part of a national event.

Friday 14th November it is Children in Need Day and would like to invite your child to come dressed in something yellow, spotty or sparkly. There is no need to wear any school uniform.

We are excited to announce we are organising our very own Strictly 25 step challenge within school to fundraise and raise awareness for BBC Children in Need. We are so excited to be getting involved and can't wait to get all children together on Friday for a fun-filled day. We're raising money to help fund projects and people that provide vital support to children when they need it most right across the UK. We will complete our Strictly challenge on Friday within our whole school assembly.

Too many children across the UK are facing life's toughest moments alone. Many are living in poverty, with mental health struggles, grief, a disability, or growing up in communities impacted by violence. Every child deserves to thrive and for someone who shows up for them. BBC Children in Need funds people and projects across the UK that provide vital support to children when they need it most. From youth clubs and counselling services to food banks and mentoring programmes, these projects help children feel seen, heard, and supported. However, right now, only 1 in 6 organisations who ask BBC Children in Need for help can currently be funded. We'd love it if you could send in an optional donation with your child on Friday 14th November.

Yours sincerely

MONDAY 10TH NOVEMBER

Odd Socks Day is an opportunity to encourage people to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique! There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or buy expensive costumes. All you need to do to take part is wear odd socks, it could not be simpler!

Strictly 25-step Dance Challenge

Strictly have created a brand new dance routine and are cha-cha-challenging you to watch a short tutorial video each day for 5 days. By day 5, you can put the moves together for routine worthy of the Glitterball!
